

UHR Connects Scotland

29 November 2023

Stirling Court Hotel, University of Stirling

PROGRAMME

Order and content may be subject to change in response to speaker requirements

09.45am	Registration and refreshments
10.00am	Welcome and opening remarks	Helen Scott, Emma Brookes and Sophie Crouchman UHR Executive Director, and Strategic Projects and Research Managers
10.05am	Blueprint for Success Using data and insights to tackle HE's biggest people challenges – an interactive exploration of how we can work together.	Sophie Crouchman and Emma Brookes UHR Strategic Projects and Research Managers
10.55am	Refreshments and Networking
11.20am	Legal Update Key recent developments affecting HE and what to expect in coming months	Neil Maclean, Partner, Head of UK Employment, Shepherd and Wedderburn LLP
12.10pm	CUPA HR – lessons from the USA on OD and EDI	Janine Chalmers, Head of OD, Aberdeen & UHR CUPA bursary winner
12.40pm	Lunch and Networking
13.20pm	HR team case study Be Heard: A modernised approach to staff engagement	Stirling HR team
13.50pm	How can 'fair work' and job crafting promote engagement and wellbeing in your team?	Professor Colin Lindsay and Dr Nicola Murray, Strathclyde Business School

14.50pm	UHR and you – quick update on what’s coming up and how to get involved and make the most of it.	The UHR staff team
14.55pm	Refreshments and Networking
15.20pm	View from the bridge: HR Director panel – Q&A HR Directors will give their view of current concerns, what they look for in HR staff, how they got where they are, followed by Q&A session.	Richard Cloughton - Heriot-Watt University Karen Lawson - University of Stirling Gordon Scott – University of Strathclyde
15.55pm	What next? Summary and have a safe journey home	The UHR staff team

www.uhr.ac.uk

Please head to our website for a list of all our current events and other information about how you can be involved.