

Landmine leg bank plan

RESEARCHERS in Scotland are helping set up a "leg bank" to help landmine victims in Colombia.

Strathclyde University have developed Majicast – a cheap way of fitting false legs. With Dutch group ProPortion, they plan to launch an appeal to give thousands of people new limbs.

